

Pearl Stacy was a student of midwifery at the Simpson Memorial Maternity Pavilion from 1 July 1944 to 1 July 1945. She went on to have a career in midwifery and health visiting in the London Borough of Richmond until her retirement in 1977. The items were donated by her stepson.

Acc 07/20

AS 14/1/2010

- |   |                           |  |
|---|---------------------------|--|
| 1 | 1 Jul 1944 – 1 Jul 1945   | Illustrated handwritten lecture notes divided into anatomy, pregnancy, labour, puerperium, baby and mechanisms.                        |
| 2 | 18 Jan 1945 – 15 May 1945 | Central Midwives Board for Scotland Case Book. Gives details of patient and child and includes pupil-midwife's own review of the case. |
| 3 | 5 Jul 1944                | Notice of registration as a pupil from Central Midwives Board for Scotland.  |
| 4 | 1945                      | Central Midwives Board for Scotland – First Examination – Examination Paper.   |
| 5 | Mar 1945                  | Letter from Central Midwives Board for Scotland notifying pupil that she had passed the first examination.                             |
| 6 | 16 Mar 1945               | Certificate for passing First Examination of the Central Midwives Board for Scotland.  |
| 7 | 1 Jul 1945                | Certificate from the School of Midwifery of the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh.  |
| 8 | 23 Jul 1945               | Certificate to practise as a midwife from the Central Midwives Board.  |
| 9 | 23 Jul 1945               | State Certified Midwife medal engraved with PEW Stacy on reverse. Object ref: O448. Electronic image at b:\OBJECTS\Additional Images.  |