

These papers, relating to the publication of Guthrie's History of the Royal Edinburgh Hospital for Sick Children, were found among the archives of the Hospital. They include notes and correspondence of Dr Douglas Guthrie, consultant ENT surgeon to the Hospital, and John Kinnaird, Secretary & Treasurer of the Board of Management for Edinburgh Central Hospitals.

- 1 Correspondence of John Kinnaird concerning illustrations for the History, and notes on staff and on developments at the Hospital, 1957-1959.
- 2 Miscellaneous papers, including a telegram to the Hospital on its centenary from Mrs Guthrie, and a letter from the Nursing Times concerning a feature on the Hospital, 1948-1960.
- 3 Typescript and ms notes taken from the Hospital's Minute Books of 1859-1954, taken by John Kinnaird, n.d.
- 4 Typescript draft of the first seven chapters of the "History", 1958.
- 5 Proof sheets of chapters 1 to X of the "History", n.d.
- 6 Copies of photographs published in the "History". n.d. (10 items).
- 7 Copies of photographs not included in "History". n.d. (5 items).
- 8 Duplicate copy photographs, including two originals. n.d. (7 items).